DEPARTMENT OF LABOUR.

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

"FEMALE MINIMUM WAGE ACT."

ORDER No. 46 (1942).

Order establishing a Minimum Wage in the Fruit and Vegetable Industry.

THE Board of Industrial Relations hereby orders:

1. That where used in this Order the expression "fruit and vegetable industry" means and includes the work of employees engaged in canning, preserving, drying, or packing any kind of fresh fruit or vegetable.

2. That the minimum wage for every employee in the fruit and vegetable industry (not included in any other Order of the Board), with the exceptions provided by section 3 hereof, shall be:—

The sum of thirty cents (30c.) per hour for every hour up to ten (10) hours in any one day: Provided, however, that no such employee in any one day shall be paid less than the sum of ninety cents (90c.).

3. That if and when an employer has paid ninety per centum (90%) of his employees in the fruit and vegetable industry at the minimum wage provided by section 2 hereof, he may then pay his remaining employee or employees (inclusive of any handicapped employee classified by the Board as such and to whom a permit has been issued under section 5 of the said "Female Minimum Wage Act"), the following minimum wage:—

The sum of twenty-five cents (25c.) per hour for every hour up to ten (10) hours in any one day: Provided, however, that no such employee in any one day shall be paid less than the sum of seventy-five cents (75c.).

4. Overtime.—That in every case where an employee works in excess of ten (10) hours and not more than twelve (12) hours in any one day, she shall be paid for the time worked in excess of ten (10) hours and up to and including twelve (12) hours at a rate equal to one and one-half (1½) times her regular rate of pay.

That in every case where an employee works in excess of twelve (12) hours in any one day, she shall be paid for the time worked in excess of twelve (12) hours at a rate equal to double her regular rate of pay.

5. That every employer shall, at least as often as semi-monthly, pay to each of his employees covered by this Order all wages and salary earned by the employee up to a day not more than eight (8) days prior to the date of payment.

6. That after not more than five (5) consecutive hours' employment every employee in the fruit and vegetable industry shall be given at least one (1) hour free from duty: Provided, however, that if a petition in writing signed by at least seventy-five per centum (75%) of his employees requesting a shorter period free from duty is received by any employer, he may, with the approval of the said Board, grant such petition, but in no case shall the period free from duty be less than half an hour.

7. That this Order become effective on the 28th day of September, 1942, and be in substitution for Order No. 46 of the said Board, establishing a minimum wage in the fruit and vegetable industry, dated the 2nd day of July, 1937, which is hereby rescinded.

Dated at Victoria, B.C., this 21st day of September, 1942.

"MALE MINIMUM WAGE ACT."

ORDER No. 47 (1942).

Order establishing a Minimum Wage in the Fruit and Vegetable Industry.

THE Board of Industrial Relations hereby orders:

1. That where used in this Order the expression "fruit and vegetable industry" means and includes the work of employees engaged in canning, preserving, drying, or packing any kind of fresh fruit or vegetable.

2. That the minimum wage for every employee in the fruit and vegetable industry (not included in any other Order of the Board), with the exceptions provided by section 3 hereof, shall be:—

The sum of thirty-eight cents (38c.) per hour for every hour up to ten (10) hours in any one day: Provided, however, that no such employee in any one day shall be paid less than the sum of one dollar and fourteen cents ($1.14).

3. That if and when an employer has paid eighty-five per centum (85%) of his employees in the fruit and vegetable industry at the minimum wage provided by section 2 hereof, he may then pay his remaining employee or employees (inclusive of any handicapped employee classified by the Board as such and to whom a permit has been issued under section 6 of the said "Male Minimum Wage Act"), the following minimum wage:—

The sum of twenty-eight cents (28c.) per hour for every hour up to ten (10) hours in any one day: Provided, however, that no such employee in any one day shall be paid less than the sum of eighty-four cents (84c.).

4. Overtime.—That in every case where an employee works in excess of ten (10) hours and not more than twelve (12) hours in any one day, he shall be paid for the time worked in excess of ten (10) hours and up to and including twelve (12) hours at a rate equal to one and one-half (1½) times his regular rate of pay.

That in every case where an employee works in excess of twelve (12) hours in any one day, he shall be paid for the time worked in excess of twelve (12) hours at a rate equal to double his regular rate of pay.

5. That every employer shall, at least as often as semi-monthly, pay to each of his employees covered by this Order all wages and salary earned by the employee up to a day not more than eight (8) days prior to the date of payment.

6. That after not more than five (5) consecutive hours' employment every employee in the fruit and vegetable industry shall be given at least one (1) hour free from duty: Provided, however, that if a petition in writing signed by at least seventy-five per centum (75%) of his employees requesting a shorter period free from duty is received by any employer, he may, with the approval of the said Board, grant such petition, but in no case shall the period free from duty be less than half an hour.

7. That this Order become effective on the 28th day of September, 1942, and be in substitution for Order No. 47 of the said Board, establishing a minimum wage in the fruit and vegetable industry, dated the 2nd day of July, 1937, which is hereby rescinded.

ORDER No. 76.

Order establishing a Minimum Wage in the Occupation of Bus-driver.

THE Board of Industrial Relations hereby orders:

1. That where used in this Order the expression "bus-driver" means every employee in charge of or driving a motor-vehicle with seating accommodation for more than seven (7) passengers used for the conveyance of the public, for which service a charge is made.

2. That this Order shall apply to all bus-drivers in the City of Vancouver, together with all that area known as Point Grey which lies to the west of the westerly boundary of the City of Vancouver; the City of New Westminster; the Corporation of the Township of Richmond; the Municipality of the District of Burnaby; Municipality of the District of West Vancouver; the City of North Vancouver; and the District of North Vancouver.

3. That the minimum wage for every bus-driver shall be:—

(a.) The sum of fifty cents (50c.) per hour when her weekly working-hours consist of not less than forty hours and not more than forty-eight hours:

(b.) The sum of fifty-five cents (55c.) per hour when her weekly working-hours are less than forty (40) hours.

4. That when bus-drivers are required by their employer to wear uniforms or special articles of wearing-apparel, no deduction shall be made from the wage of any bus-driver for such uniforms or special articles of wearing-apparel, except under terms with regard to the cost thereof that have been duly approved by the Board in writing as being fair and reasonable in the circumstances.

5. That every employee waiting on call for employment as required by her employer shall be paid for the time thus spent according to the rates to which she is entitled under this Order.

6. That no employee shall be employed as bus-driver for more than eight (8) hours in any one day or for more than forty-eight (48) hours in any one week, unless a permit in writing has been received from the Board.

7. That every employer shall, at least as often as semi-monthly, pay to each employee covered by this Order all wages and salary earned by the employee up to a day not more than eight (8) days prior to the date of payment.

8. That every employee shall be given a rest period of twenty-four (24) consecutive hours in each calendar week, of which she shall be duly notified by her employer. "Rest period" in this case means from midnight to midnight.

9. That this Order shall become effective on the 28th day of September, 1942.

To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing of profits, union of interest, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company, wheresoever incorporated, carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on, engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(o.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares, stock, debentures, or other securities in any other company, wheresoever incorporated, having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly to benefit the Company, and to sell or reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(p.) To enter into any arrangement with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(q.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or work necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(r.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular, by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(s.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, issue, and to borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company may see fit by promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warehouse receipts, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(t.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(u.) To carry on any other business permitted by the "Companies Act," whether manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To purchase or otherwise acquire from A.B.C. Auto Parts, Limited, and take over as a going concern and undertake the business heretofore carried on by Durable Mat Company (Canada), Limited, at Victoria aforesaid, and recently purchased by said A.B.C. Auto Parts, Limited, and all or any part of the property, assets, and liabilities thereof, including the good-will of the said business (with the right to use the name "Durable Mat Company (Canada), Limited," or any name similar thereto, and to represent the Company as carrying on such business in continuation of and (or) in succession to the said Durable Mat Company (Canada), Limited), all or any real or personal property owned or otherwise held or controlled by the vendors, whether or not the same is or has been used in connection with the said business, and the full benefit of all pending contracts and (or) engagements to which the vendors may be entitled in connection with the said business, all cash in hand and at the bank, all bills and notes, and all other property to which the vendors may be entitled, and as part of the cost of acquisition of any of the said assets to assume and undertake to pay and actually pay any debt or obligation of the said vendors:

(b.) To carry on in all or any of their branches all or any one or more of the following businesses: The business of manufacturers of and dealers in mats, beltings, rubber goods, articles of all kinds of rubberized laminated fabric, reclaimers of all classes of articles, produce, and substances:

(c.) To carry on any and all lines of business as manufacturers, producers, dealers, merchants, importers and exporters generally, without limitation as to class of products and merchandise, and to manufacture, produce, adapt, prepare, buy, sell, and otherwise deal in any materials, articles, or things required in connection with or incidental to such business:

(d.) To carry on the business of carriers, forwarding agents, cartage agents, transportation of merchandise, storage, ship-owners, charterers of vessels, dock-owners, warehousemen, wharfingers, box-makers, and commission agents:

(e.) To manufacture, either wholly or in part, and to sell any goods, substances, machines, tools, articles, apparatus, or things for the manufacture of which the plant, machinery, or property of the Company may from time to time be available or suitable:

(f.) To buy, sell, manufacture, repair, alter and exchange, let or hire, import or export and deal in all kinds of articles and things which may be required for the purpose of any of said businesses, or commonly supplied or dealt in by persons engaged in any such business, or which may seem capable of being profitably dealt with in connection with any of said businesses:

(g.) To acquire by purchase, concession, exchange, lease, or otherwise, and to construct, erect, operate, hold, maintain, and manage, all factories, stores, shops, depots, foundries, machine-shops, engine-houses, and other structures and erections necessary or convenient for the carrying-on of its business, and all other property, real or personal, necessary or useful for the carrying-on of any of the purposes of the Company, and to lease, sell, or otherwise dispose of the same:

(h.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to protect, prolong, and renew, patents, patent rights, copyrights, trade-marks, formulæ, licences, protections, concessions, and the like, conferring or relating to any exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and to use, exercise, improve, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise to turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(i.) To employ any person or persons, partnership or corporation to solicit, demonstrate, and take orders from and deliver to any person any of the goods, wares, and merchandise manufactured or sold by the Company:

(j.) To lend or advance money and to extend credit to any company, person, or association, with or without security and upon such terms as the Company may think fit, and in particular (and without limitation by reason of the foregoing) on the security of lands, buildings, produce, live stock, and (or) any and every kind and description of property whatsoever:

(k.) Subject to the "Insurance Act," to guarantee or become liable for the payment of money or for the performance of any obligations, and generally to transact all kinds of guarantee and agency business:

(l.) To allot shares in the capital of the Company, credited as fully or partly paid up, as the whole or part of the purchase price of any lands, goods, chattels, or other personal property purchased by the Company, or for services rendered or to be rendered, or for any other valuable consideration.

Provided that the objects specified in any paragraph hereof shall, except where otherwise expressed, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.
